Message from the President

Benjamin West (a painter) when a little boy had endeavored to paint a picture of his sister while his mother was gone. So he got out the bottles of ink and started. Soon he had an awful mess. His mother eventually returned. Of course she spied the mess. But instead of scolding him, she picked up his portrait and declared, "What a beautiful picture of your sister!" Then she kissed him. Later in life he said, "With that kiss I became a painter."

There are few forces quite as powerful as the ministry of encouragement. Of all the men and women who have influenced my life, it is my encouragers that I remember best and appreciate most.

At the heart of the text you have chosen as your theme (Hebrews 10:24-25) is the challenge: "but let us encourage one another."

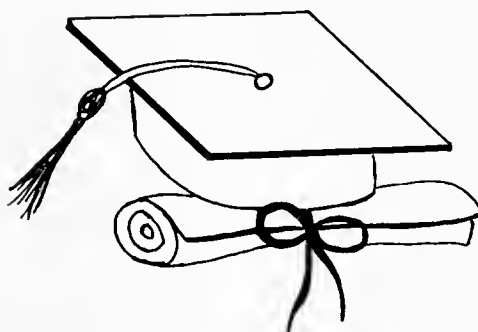

Our churches, homes and communities are crowded with insecure, arrogant, jealous, destructive critics. Genuine encouragers are a vanishing breed, a rare species.

How will you be remembered by your friends? Do you really want to make a difference in people's lives? Be an encourager. You will bless the heart of God, others will rise up and call you blessed because you have been a fork in the road of their life.

That is our deepest desire and most earnest prayer for you. May your life be crowned with the rich and precious fruit of a life lived under God for others.

Dr. Wm. McRae

OUR TIMES TOGETHER

We've seen good times, we've seen sad times.
And through these times we've trusted you, oh, Lord.
And we'll keep on seeking you Lord, serving you Lord,
Trusting you Lord to work in our lives each day.
For we'll press t'wards the goal, shaped into your mold, for eternity.

CHORUS: We can think of all our times together
And thank the Lord how much we've learned;
Trust Him ev'ry day, for Jesus is our way.

Looking back on all the times gone,
I can see why I've been brought your way this far
And I know He'll keep you safely in His ways
For He says that through all times trust in Him
And we'll press t'wards the goal, shaped into His mold, for eternity.
